J. L. BOARDMAN, Editor and Proprietor.

Family Journal--- Deboted to News, Politics, Literature, Agriculture, Markets, &c.

One Dollar a Year; Strictly in Advance.

VOL. XXI.

HILLSBOROUGH, HIGHLAND COUNTY, OHIO, THURSDAY, AUGUST 13, 1857.

NUMBER 15.

Postry.

For the News. NORA-THE HEART'S GRIEF. I saw her at twilight all lonely and sad, And her dark eyes were smullen with weep-

I saw her at midnight-her smiles were glad-As she calmiy and sweetly lay sleeping. Her red lips were parted, her noft sheek was flustred. Once she sighed deep, and started, and heartbeatings hushed, "Twee but for a moment, and the clouds flaw

Then pleasure's gay smiles came again o'er her face.

The day brings no rest for thee, Nors, our darling one, For the heart we can find no pain-soothing is

And her head rests low on the pillow. Dream on, fair Nova, of glad moments gone, Returning to thee, loved one, mener! I would thou could'st thus dream tranquilly on Forever, dear slater, forever!

quaking. And I force back a fest-coming tear, Be atlent! speak softly! poor Nora is waking, Her comfortless walting is near. Onkside, 1857. LILLIE STEAC.

PROVERES IN RHYME.

Translations of proverbs, attributed to Ger-man, Hebrew. French and Italian nutbors. Treet indies' favor with respect, Good will of woman ne'er neglect, No man e'er slighted woman yet, But found good cause for sharp regret. O'er all the world four things we find, Which leave no much or trace behind,
The eagle searing hold and free,
The ship which ploughs the famming sea,
The suake us o'er the rock he slipe.
And lover's kies o'er mailes tipe.

Would you lose time as squire or page, Serve Woman, Infancy or Age; Age dies and youth forgetteth soon, While reman changes as the moon-Palse wives and conflagrations, Fortunes lost, and includations.

"Where money is, the Devil is," So may the Father's creek. But where there is no maney at all, There is the Davil Indeed!

To-day may be thine, To-marrow 'll be mine. Then foulest my water-I'll poison thy wine!

On yonder water deep and fair, I see a grey duck swim.
And were there man as free from care, I fain would be like him

Not by strength, but by oft falling, The water wears the stene: Not by farce, but by oft reading, Is learning made our own.

If where you sit should prove a pleasant uses Then still sit still nor from that sent retreat.

The your Circle.

For the Naws. Love and Latred.

enjoyment of their society, and makes many will be from the country graves; bright fair day is better for the eperation." life's burdens light. In the exercise of from sleeping-places in the orchards. To Make Blackseau Wise -As the seathis principle, the faults and failings of with the sweet drift of spring blossoms son for blackberries is near at hand, the followour friends and neighbors dwindle into the green woods; from the hills their ed by several journals, may be of value to the insignificance, and their goodness of heart and worthy acts are alone observable—for "Love hides a multitude of Boston he will have nothing else to do."

In the green woods, from the fills their ladies. Measure your herries and braise them; in his sails as he floats along the water to every gallon adding one quart of water; let the mixture stand twenty-four hours, attiving occasionally; then atrain off the floats along the water water to every gallon adding one quart of water; let the mixture stand twenty-four hours, attiving occasionally; then atrain off the floats along the water to every gallon adding one quart of water; let the mixture stand twenty-four hours, attiving occasionally; then atrain off the floats along the water to every gallon adding one quart of water; let the mixture stand twenty-four hours, attiving and casting anchor at his pleasure."

gree to be unhappy-miserable. How and the pleasant shade, and the old- of the latter, it exaggerates and heightens into may. Inshinned fire, and the wheat of his own sowing, and the home-made butter, and the special descriptions of others; and the elbow-room, and the flocks in his agreeable tast of codiliver off by the addition own fields—he misses those as the years of short ten per cont. of commune sait. Not easy on, and by and by he concludes the sait render the oil palsiable, but the sait render the oil palsiable, but the concludes the sait render the oil palsiable, but the sait render the oil palsiable, but the sait render the oil palsiable, but the sait render the sait render the oil palsiable, but the sait render the sait r our bedies, preserver and benefactor of our bedies, preserver and benefactor of our lives, how intense is the agony! I and the farm is white and drifted; and said to experience this horrible sen-poral and spiritual; and I hate Him su-brought there in his hand, when he was premely, who is the source and centre younger than now; and he sees, as he which are carried on by the lower of it all. Nay, if thou canst under looks, the stars and the clear heaven, creatures?" stand it, I rationally admire, though my and so, hopefully and trustfully, he heart burns with malice toward Him. I bids the world "good night." could tear Him from His throne; and shall free me from this distraction?"

Hillsboro, July 7, 1857.

THE STEP-DAUGHTER.

Sha is not MINE, and to my heart, Perhaps she is less dear Than those of whom my life is part— This is the sin I fear! And ever in the dread to err,

By loving these the best, More gentia invest been to her, Perhaps, than all the rest. Has any little fault eccurred. That may rebake demand, Ere I can speak a basty word, An angel's face comes flitting by,
With looks so sad not calld—
Asseles flows softly from the sky;
"Wouldst harm my arphan child?"
Not witness thou, and all above,

I'll cherish her as mine; Or may I loss a mother's love-A love that once was thine!

An Attack of Old Age.

copied from the Chicago Journal: The dark midnight hours and blest Sleep, the newspapers, and nowhere queerer bellishments but toys, is not of gold, Catch them seleep in the daytime, if Can fall to repose the stormed beaten flower. The Weekly Commercial, published at brass, (that would not do,) but of iron, industry.

New Boston, Illinois, contains the fol- Iron, therefore, is the only precious "Auto Forever 'tis awayed by the dread storm within, lowing announcement, involving about Unessaing 'tis recked by the billow, as grave an error in the philosophy of society! Its hands and figures, which

But the long lashes tremble, the slight form is Said complaint is doubtless worse, in its of the ago are moved; and its iron as busy as ants, I think."

the good qualities of the old home and though constantly at work, and abstead, such as beautiful groves, bearing solutely necessary to the movement of so-And this kingdom—for kingdom it is — the unbappy owner proposes to abdicate; and what is very probable, move — the unbappy owner proposes to abdicate; and what is very probable, move — the unbappy owner proposes to abdicate; and what is very probable, move — the unbappy owner proposes to abdicate; and what is very probable, move — the unbappy owner proposes to abdicate; and what is very probable, move — the unbappy owner proposes to abdicate; and what is very probable, move — the unbappy owner proposes to abdicate; and what is very probable, move — the unbappy owner proposes to abdicate — there are no carriages—the dogs, mangy and wolfish, sharl and signed with his name, for Day. He had retired to his chamber, daily work as scavengers, and make lanting to potato harvest.

they will flatter two sickly leaves apiece, as he passes, and thinks of the for the treatment of muslin articles:-"In summer birds, hard by his door.

bliss. In Him we find a Being of such He will have abundance of time to make the smack as they never smacked under safely lavish the full tide of our affections, and receive a satisfactory return; for He says, "I will love them that love me."

Removing and Parvagring Rest.—Some persons and receive a satisfactory return; for He says, "I will love them that love me."

Removing and Parvagring Rest.—Some persons and its remove rust from kinrs; take, the best authority declares, should be strong doubt whether any composer, dead or doubt whether any composer. The mover that laving a summer of the mover. The Wheat harvest is user love, the nearly the service her hundred instrumental performers, had embarked—to investigate and elear the bottoms of Ohio and the follows.

Not but that he likes the focus, but that he likes the focus, but that he likes the seed of the assembled thousands understance of infinite perfection, that there we may watch the approaches of age; he will similar infleuce before. To feel in a deree a sensation of the it, and named the trees, and waited for placed in damp situations, giving them a thin opposite passion-hatred, is to that de them to grow; and the ice-cold well, that God made the country, and he re-But when it extends to the great Gop turns thither just to be by himself-he will give the language of one who was there is a great bed of glowing coals home twilight, and the narrow-waisted "I hate all good, physical, intellac- clock ticks steadlly on; and the old man tual, moral-individual and social-tem- looks out at the window, and up through yet that throne commands my rever-It is told that when Minister Miles carry on trades?" ence. How am I divided! My soul is tain. He said, "O Lord, thou knowest in poultry, and a wholesale dealer, too, in a state of muting! Who, O who, we do not want Thee to send us a rain as the farmers and the farmers' wives which shall pour down in fury and swell know to their cost." Love, or Hatrad-which will we cher. our streams, and sweep away our hayish in our hearts and practice in our Lord, we want it to come drizzle, drozzle ducklings, he must needs push on his

The Watch--- Iron More Useful Than | conveyed to his store house in the |

I have now in my hand a gold watch which combines embellishment and atility in happy proportions, and is often considered a very valuable append- trade, healdes the fox?" age to the person of a gentleman. Its which all these are put in motion, I am and the otter are fishermen. told it is made of steel! I ask what is The following prettily written sketch So, then, I find the mainspring, without "Ants which the watch would be always mo-One sometimes finds queer things in tionless, and its hands, figures and em- always seem in earnest at their work .than in the columns of advertisements. (that is not sufficiently good,) nor of you can. They set us an example of Till the good angel Sleep, with kind arms takes living as one often encounters. It runs tell the hour, resemble the master as I was. spirits of the age, to whose movements "You seem all attention, certainly "My wife and I have an attack of every eye is directed. Its useless, but Henry. The swallow is a fly-catcher, ooks like it, and feels like it-has been embellishments are the aristocracy. day would quite astenish you. Often coming on for some time, and gets grad- Its works of brass are the middle have you seen him skimming along the ually worse every year; we fear we class, by the increasing intelligence surface of the brook and the pond. shall not get well while on the farm.— and power of which, the master spiro die." wind up by the payment of wages, and fully with his tail.

The advertiser goes on to enumerate which classes are shut up in obscurity. "Well done, it

> Good Advice.—Avoid all hoastings of and the milk is made of sweet clover, appreciative manner; avoid giving of-but when he reaches New Boston, he fence, and if you do offend, have the will turn geologist, and buy an article manlinesasto apologize; infuse as much ould puzzle elegance as possible in Dr. Buckland, varying in tint, as they as well as your actions; and as you the end." will, from a London brown to an agu. avoid vulgarities you will increase the

A columporary gives the following recipe grove of young timber," that woold washing mushin dresses the colors may be prethe summer wind, and sheltered the vented from running, by pursuing the follow-Old age has found him there in the distely, rell it smoothly in a dry sheet and let of material is formed into the largest country, walled round about with pure air, and so he proposes to evacuate the fortress, and fly to New Boston. If old fortress, and fly to New Boston. If old age croeps now, it will quicken its pace half as hour in some soft water, then allow it to a Canterbury gallop by the time he reaches the town.

And then he proposes to sell his And then, he proposes to sell his in the colors, and requires to be riused out in And then, he proposes to sen his in the colors, and requires to be russed out to home, that he may find leisure to die only clean water, and starching is unaccessary. This may be regarded as the heat method, world whence one would rather hail, than home—home in the bosom of Nutres colors. A great number of beautiful dresses are, from time to time spoiled in washing the bosom better than home. Love is a delightful emotion. It is ture, the home his own labor has adorning, by the discharge of their colors, from the pleasant to love our friends, our parents, our children, &c. It enhances our Gate; and find it opened to them, full should be used as gold as possible. The bran "I shall be made wiser to do used as gold as possible. The bran than I have ever been before."

But then, after all, our abdicating cask, in every gallen adding two pounds of su-king will be uncrowned in spite of us, gar, cask light and let stand till the following october, and you will have wine ready for use, coat of lard and rosin, melted together, in the

To preserve flowers in water, mix a little rate of sods in it, and it will keep them

JUVENILE DEPARTMENT. Trades Carried on by Birds, Beasts

"Please to tell me something to amuse ne, uncle, will you? "Well, if I am to talk to amuse you it must be about something entertain-

"Trades! Why how can they carry on any trade! Do you mean to say that beasts and birds, and such like,

"You shall hear. The fox is a dealer

"That is true, certainly." Lord, we want it to come drizzle, drozzle ducklings, he must needs push on his drizzle, drozzle, drozzle, drozzle, for about a week.—

Amen.

Ms. Entros:—The snawers to Enigms in last week's paper by Ralph, is: "That Kansas but trade among the full-grown cocks and heas; and many a good fat goose is shall be free."

Ms. Entros:—The snawers to Enigms in marches of the two-fold chorus, and by which the plaintiff sustained injuring. The cost of the case to the Combination of the stormy heas; and many a good fat goose is shall be free."

Ms. Entros:—The snawers to Enigms in marches of the two-fold chorus, and so contemplate in the ducklings, he must needs push on his marches of the two-fold chorus, and so contemplate in the control of the stormy a visit to the United States within the plaintiff sustained injuring. The cost of the case to the Combination of the stormy will reach $20,000.

"A wily trader in his way."
Is Raymard, both by night and day." "And what other creature carries on a

"The otter and the heron are fisherhands, face, chain and case are of chas- men, though they neither make use of ed and burnished gold. Its gold seals a line nor net. It is not very often that sparkle with the ruby, topas, sapphire, and smerald. I open it, and find that ries on his trade, for the most part, unthe works, without which this elegant- der the water; but the heron is frely furnished case would be a mere shell quently seen standing with his long,

"No, that I cannot; but never should steel? The reply is that it is iron I have thought of it, if you had not

"Ants are day-laborers, and are very industrious, too, in their calling; they

"Auts freely work, without disguise; Their ways consider, and be wise." "Go on, uncle; I am not half so tired omething that we fear is old age. It sparkling seals, sapphires, topaxes, and and the number that he catches in a "Yes, that I have; and swallows are consequence of our always having been hard workers; but we can't stand the hard workers; but we can't stand the hard workers, but we can't stand the hard knocks any more. We have no hard knocks any more. We have no hard knocks any more, when it is disorderly, broken, or wants at all these trades. He cuts down the Universe, in comparison with the appa- other times he would retire to his room, help, only as we hire, and we are going winding up, symbolizes the laboring small trees with his teeth; and after he rent insignificance of this globe, has as his custom was, and taking up some classes, which, like the mainspring, we has built his house, he plasters it skill-sometimes shaken my reason for the favorite old author, (he rarely read mod-wind wind we have the mainspring and the built his house, he plasters it skill-sometimes shaken my reason for the favorite old author, (he rarely read mod-wind wind we have the mainspring will be a black and the classes.)

outdo all the rest."

all only six miles from New Boston - cept when they require their wages, or you should examine a wasp's nest, you depth of my conscionce. The whole his- would read until he fell asleep. And boys in the streets no sound of elbow, talking over his head, and sey- and exaggerations, back-biting, abuse, "Singing birds are musicians, and no 1852. enteen strange broads of chickens in and svil speaking; slang phrases and other musicians can equal them in his patch of a garden, from the time of oaths in conversation; depreciate no harmony. Hardly can we decide which man's qualities, and accept haspitalities has the advantage - the lark, the His butter is the color of gold new, of the humblest kind in a hearty and blackbird, the throatle, or the nightin-

"O, never fear. The five-fly and the and eat it. will, from a London brown to an aguish paller; his cow will be thin, and the respect of others.—Blanders in Behavior like a resourcection.

He will set out two walking-aticks for a shade on each side of his gate, and the will flutter two will f "Yes; I have seen them. I shall not forget the lamp-lighters." "The bee is a professor of geometry; for he constructs his cells so scien

"The beeis much more clever than I

"The caterpillar is a silk-spinner, and far before all other silk-spinners in cresee we are indebted to the silk-worm .- val of Royalty, in search of Highland the lower creatures!" "I shall be made wiser to-day, uncle,

"The mole is an engineer, and forms a tunnel quite as well as if he had been instructed by an engineer. The nautilus is a navigator, hoisting and taking ing to sail for the Arctie Seas, in search in his sails as he floats along the water, of the remains of the long lost naviga-

But to love God is the supremacy of and turn a citizen of New Boston.— October, and you will have wine ready for use, without further boiling or straining, that will have abundance of time to supremacy of the will have abundance of time to supremache the brave abin weight and to supremache the brave abin weight and to supremache the brave abin weight and the brave abin weight a supremache the brave abin weight and the brave abin weight and the brave abin weight a supremache the brave abin weight and the brave abin weight a supremache the brave abin weight and the brave abin weight a supremache the brave abin weight a supremache the brave abin weight a supremache the brave abin weight as an expert hird-catcher, the leech an

LFIn making Enigmas our young friends proportions of three parts of the former to one should remember that it is necessary to include all the letters in the word or phrase cho-Con Liven Oit .- In the Repertaine de Phur- sen as the subject. "S. E. R." sends us one

> Miscellaneous Enigma. I am composed of 94 letters. My 9, 17, 14, 13, 6, is a part of the body. 15, S, I, is a bey's name. 10, 2, 3, 6, I, is a Lake in California. My 18, 13, 22, 7, 3, is a fowl. My 2, 19, 12, 11, 5, is seen in every city or

> My 24, 17, 4, 23, is a given laugth of time. My 16, 2, 3, 11, 11, is a game. My 9, 20, 21, is a youth. My 0, 1, 11, 16, 19, is a city in Mexico My whole is a chartered Company in the U July 23d, 1857. BUMP & CO.

For the News, Arithmetical Joke. That is a curious property of the number one, for when multiplied by how, it is equal to say other number multiplied by two. For instance: Twice erren in fourteen, and fuice one Arithmetical Problem.

Good, Plain English.

I never, for the life of me, could make out what we gain by using fine words. Nay, I perhaps unfortunately always suspect them, and am not in the their meaning. Just compare now-look on this picture, and on thatwhich expression do you like best-"A large room well lighted," or "An extensive apartment effectively illuminated"? "A man going home," or "An sense in the overdress of a coxcomb .-And, as we might expect, it is just those own sentences, and choose their own House style of talk and correspondence-stick classical sources, depend on it, wherever an idea can, consistently with usage, best .- Alford.

Daniel Webster's Dying Testimony-

"Lord, I believe, help thou mine unbe-

Miscellancous.

From the Glazgow Telegraph, July 11. Sailing of Lady Franklin's Expe-

Last Wednesday, at a very early hour, the city of Aberdeen was the scene of bustle and excitement. The inhabitants were hurrying hither and thither, their countenances bearing the impress of a mixture of anxiety and hope. ation. For the richest dresses that we great event was at hand-not the arri-With what wonderful properties has it seclusion-not the visit of a French pleased our heavenly Father to endow prince on a scientific exploration—not the return of the brave Highlanders from a Russian campaign; but an event of far greater significance, and of transcendant importance to the cause of humanity-Lady Franklin's screw steamer, the Fox, was appointed that morn-"I should never have believed that tators crowded the docks to catch a any one could make things out so clear- glimpse of that gallant captain and darappreciated.

experience of all the previous search- they spread beyond it, and flowed audi- in toward Spurgeonism, and it is said

The Late Mr. Marcy.

Mr. Marey was a great man in all things, but it was in social and domes. was crowded to hear Dickens read his to your Saxon, your own fine, nervous, his last days and hours, is thus pictured hours, the reader showed no signs of honest English. Enriched as it is with her the correspondent of the N. V. English. necessary and ornamental words from by the correspondent of the N. Y. Even-tertainment as much as his most atten-

how he would take his chair out under Courier, Correspondence. the wide-spreading elms, and entertain his landlord, and the plain, old-fashion- Graphic Description of Jerusalom. ed people who gathered about him, delighted with the pleasant stories which and extend. What page it was on which the of mouldering bones and shattered housrolume was opened, I know not .-Perhaps it was on that most appropriate passage where the great philosopher

thus discourses "of Death";

and expectations." penses of his journey, and by teaching county, has 400 acres. carried himself to the Bar.

Bayard Taylor gives the following vesters, and did not the labor saving tion, and as the brave ship weighed an- I reached London in time to hear the As it is, in Southern Ohio the greatest chor and stood out to sea, the lusty last of Handel's oratories-lurael in energy and economy of time and labor up the haze still hanging around the over 17,000 persons. The coup d' wil - Cleveland Herald fate of the Arctic expedition, were fully alone, was sublimer than any picture. Yes; Lady Franklin's expedition has up the whole breadth of the western ble given him by his mother, which he sailed; in a few days hence it will reach transept, stretched off into space, and lost in a Rhode Island groggery, lifteen the ice, where the hardships of an Are- the simultaneous turning of the leaves years ago. A few weeks since it was tic voyage commence. To Captain Mc. of their music books was like the ap- accidentally found in the server of an Clintock and his gallant crew we sin- pearance of 'an army with banners,' old attic, where it was probably thrown cerely wish God speed! There must be or the rustling of the wind in a mountain the time. Having Mr. Gough's relies in existence which will afford a tain forest. We were so late that we name, in his mother's hand-writing it atisfactory clue to the fate of the lost could only cling to the outskirts of the was recognized and restored to him Sir John Franklin and his compan-multitude below, and I was fearful that through the agency of the daughter ions; the remains of such an expedi- we should not be able to hear distinctly of the late Rev. Dr. John O. Cheules. tion as that which he commanded can- but I might as well have feated not not be utterly obliterated. Besides, hearing the thunder in a cloud over my Spurggonism in London.-"It is the Fox sails under specially favora- head. Not only was the quarter of a very manifest that the fashion of turnble auspices. Captain McCliutock will mile of palace completely filled with the ing Roman Catholic is going out among doubtless be enabled to profit by the waves of the chorus, in every part, but the aristocracy. The stream is setting ing expeditions; they have extended bly over the hills for a mile around. I that the Duchess of Sutherland is on over a wide expanse of ground; he kept my eye on the leader, Da Costa, the eve of uniting herself with that has now but a comparatively small whose single arm controlled the whirl- cause under Mr. Spurgeon's leadership. space to explore; that done, the work wind. He lifted it, like Moses, and the She and the Duchess of Argyle have will be thoroughly accomplished, ev- plagues fell upon Egypt; he waved it, been in frequent attendance at his ery mile of thos ice-bound regions and the hailstones smote, crashing upon ministrations."-London Times. the highways and the temple-roofs; he HEAVY DAMAGES.-We learn from waves parted, and closed again on the sell, the well known Crimean corresponthe Elmira Gazette that a case decided chariots of Pharaph. He was lord of dent, ("our own" of the London Times,) at the last term of the Court of Ap. the tuneful hosts that day, and Handel has, it is stated, determined to pay us a Piace the numbers from 1 to 2 inclusive, in peals, gave a verdict of $15,000 in fa- himself, as he wrote the scores of the visit this fall, and will probably make a square, so that when read herizontally, three peals, gave a verdict of $15,000 in fa-

Dickens Before an Audience. Last night St. Martin's Hall, London,

tie life that he appeared in his most in- family of the late Douglas Jerrold. "Christmas Carol," for the benefit of the habit of giving them half-credit for viting aspect. When out of office he As S o'clock, precisely, a well-dressed laid aside all the cares of public life .- gentleman, with a geranium in his but-In a letter written to Col. Berrett, one of his most intimate friends, July 2d, ble, his incipient baldness, appeared alone on the platform, and I knew, by "I make but slow progress in adjust- the vehement applause, it could be none those hands motionless and those figures without meaning—are made of brass. Investigating further, and asking what is the spring made of by fish. You cannot deny that the heron which all these are not in the spring made of by fish. You cannot deny that the heron and the averdous of a correspondent of a correspondent of the venement applause, it could be none in this long, individual proceeding to his residence. In the venement applause, it could be none this legs in the shallow part of the rivergestions, in each case, conveys good sense in doubts whether I shall be ready to take ble does in her admirable readings of shakspeare, to reveal the latent meanings of the great dramatist, Dickons "No man more suddenly withdrew does for Dickens. It is not so much cases where a faine effect is aimed at, this thoughts from politics than I have reading as acting. The thin voice of that such expressions are used. * * * mine. I scarcely look at the news. Tiny Tim, the chirrupy notes of Bob No, my good friends, let me advise you papers. * * * * I hardly care to tax Cratchett, the indignant voice of Cratchett. all, and especially the young ones among my memory with the fact that there is ett's wife, and above all, the sullen you, who are beginning to make their such a place in this country as the White mumbling tenes of Scrooge himself were rendered inimitably. Although How pleasantly Mr. Marcy spent the reading occupied more than two tive au dience; and when, after the close, His old books and his old friends he returned for a moment to bow his be expressed in both ordinary and ex- were his constant solace, and when he acknowledgement of the vociferous traordinary language, the homely, usual, stopped at the antique, shaded hotel at calls for him, his countenance were the one-syllable English is by very far the Ballston, where he died, it was noticed pleased expression of a boy's .- Boston

The Jerusalem correspondent of the he told, and the philosophic humor, and Post, graphically describes the ruin and faith which is in mo; but my heart has 'ern literature' Milton, Shakapeare, Her. concealed by a black veil, resemble so "Well done, beaver! He seems to always assured and re-assured me, that vey among the poets, South, Barrow, or many ghosts just risen from their suboutdo all the rest."

The wasp is a paper-maker, and he Divine Reality. The SERMON ON THE edition of Machiavel, (a favorite work, they have a great fancy for cameteries, orchards, running water, excellent build ciety, as the iron main-spring is to the makes his paper out of materials that no Mount cannot be a merely human proings, two hundred acres of land, and gold watch, are never thought of, exother paper unaker would use. If ever duction, This belief cuters into the very Bacon, among philosophic writings, and inscription on his tomb-October 10, put his boots in the usual corner, put on daily work as acavengers, and make his dressing-gown, and lying down the livelong night hideons with their with Knight's edition of Bacon's Es. contentions-the very birds do not harmony. Hardly can we decide which has the advantage — the lark, the blackbird, the throatle, or the nightingale."

A Hint for the Season.—As veguals and fruit become abundant, the danger of summer diseases will, of course increase. It becomes every one to be ally closed, on one side were the spectimental in the enjoyment of these tacles, on the other the well-remember. And wake with barmony the grove."

"I am afraid that you are coming to the end."

"I am afraid that you are coming to the end."

"O, never fear. The fire-fly and the and eat it."

"I have for the season.—As veguals as a small red quarto volume, with sing, but cry to each other with a discordant chirp, or complain with a harsh murmur. From the horrors of the city, if we pass to the city, if we pass the Essays of Bacon, and over it were green thing-the promenades are cemday of the nation whose fame and power he had done so much to uphold and extend.

Greek, the Syrian, the Roman, the Saracen, the Crusader, the Turk. In fine, Jerusalem is naught but a "heap"

The Crops in Southern Ohio.

We are indebted to our friend John "A mind fixed and bent on somewhat CABLISLE, of this city, for as fine a disthat is good, doth avert the dolors of play of samples of Wheat from Ross death; but above all, believe it, the county as ever met the eye. They are sweetest canticle is 'nunc dimittis,' of the following varieties, to wit: French, when a man hath obtained worthy ends Black, White Genessee. Zimmerman, Blizzard, and Shot. The French and Like most New England young mon, Black were raised from seed received by Mr. Marcy was much thrown on his Doct. Warts of Ross through the Putown resources in early life. When he ent Office, but are not considered by the left home to engage in the study of Doctor as worth boasting of. Of all the law, his father gave him thirteen dollars varieties, the White Genessee seems to as an outfit. When he had travelled carry off the palm. It weighs like load, about twenty miles, ten dollars of his and is as plump and firm as grain can money was proved counterfeit. By be. Doct. Warts has 365 acres of this stopping to work he cleared the ex- Wheat, and Gro. Wood, of the same

What would become of Ohio were it not for machines, mowers, and reapers, A Monster Musical Performance. we cannot imagine. It is impossible, for love or money, to secure human har-"Let me finish, then, by observing ilous voyage. Lady Franklin and her graphic description of an oratorio he machines come in to the aid of the large the grain and hay crop would be lost .-

The vast amphitheatre of singers, filling | John B. Gough has recovered the Bi-stretched it forth, and the Red Sea Districtments Visirous .- Mr. Rustimes, perpendicularly three times, and diagonally twice, the sum of each shall be 15.

ROBIN." Railroad, in the matter of an accident. Following him. I trod in the thunder. and against the New York and Eric perfectly incarnated its harmonics.— Samuel Lover, the Irich poet, author Railroad, in the matter of an accident Following him, I tred in the thunder- and artist, and S. C. Hall, editor of the